

As shown here, ECFS hung up three times “please wait” when I attempted to submit this filing. Once ECFS resumed proper operation, it permitted the submission to be completed.

ECFS confirmations of filing, as shown here, do not give a date-and-time stamp. Since, by the time ECFS resumed normal operations (after the “please wait” system hangups), the time may have been some seconds past Midnight at the end of May 8, the undersigned is giving his explanation, and requesting that the filing date of May 8 be accepted (since but for the ECFS temporary problems, the filing would have been completed on May 8.
